THE PRIZE FIGHT. - The Northedge-Mcfight came off yesterday at Gunston, on the Virginia side of the Potomac, twelve below this city. The ring was pitched red yards from the river, in a wel' selected spot. Northedge was first to enter the fighting space, and was followed a mo-ment later by McMillan, McMillan welghed 150 paucads and Northedge 160. After some discus ion, George Man'z was agreed upon The fight was a fierce one from he start, and both men received severe pur-McMillan soon had one of Northeign's eyes closed, and blood pouring from comercus cuts. Northedge wanted to quit ands, however, pushed him into the ring and under their advice he bit McMillan several ounds without a return. The latter, however still looked a winner After the fourteen'h round Northedge became the stronger, and in the eighteenth he knocked his man clean out with a lef-banded punch in the j.w. The fight was with skir-tight groves, under Queenshurv rules, for $250 a sale and a purse of $300. It lested one hour and twenty minutes.

READING ROOM .- The old residence at the corner of Wolfe and Henry streets has been rented from Mrs. Makely and is being litted up as a reading room for the Virginia Mid-land Railroad men. REDECCA.-The rehearsal of this beautiful cantain last night, gave conclusive evidence that the performance to-night at the Opera House will equal in excellence, if not surpass, its first production, which is saying much. The cast has been selected by the director, Miss V rginia Evans, with great care [Miss Myra Cyaller singing the title role), and it combines strength, harmony and graceful action, while the chorus is well balanced, of excellent timbre and urder good control. The costumes of the young ladies and gentlemen will be pic-turesque an lappropriate to the historical period represented. Our citizans have here-tefore responded it really to the worthy ot-ject for which former entertainments have been given, and it is hoped they will contions in well doing and turn out to-night in force in aid of the good cause. No INDEPENDENT .- A number of citizens who have heretofore taken part in the den-ocratic primary elections, but who, under the rule adopted by the city democratic committee last night, will be prevented from voting in next fuesday's primary, have called on Mr. J. R. Caton to-lay and orgad him to withdraw from the primary and become an independent candidate, telling him that the change of the rule last night will be detrimental to his candidacy. Mr. Caton, however, positively declined to withdraw or to become an independent candidate, saying that he would submit his claim to the democratic primary and would continue his effort to secure the nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney from now till the polls closed on Tuesday evening.

NEW YORK, April 25 -The opening of the stock market this morning was made upon a molerate amount of business, while first prices were steady as compared with last evening's final figures There was some pressure to sell at the opening, however, and rises generally receded small fractions. Buying in earnest then began, and the market rallied sharply with a most marked in crease in activity. Toward the end of the hour the demand slacked off and prices shaded off again slightly, business becoming again comparatively quiet. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and steady at about opening figures.
